

The senior network grew tenfold; its connectivity did not follow

Cabinet adviser rank and above, in post each year. Dashed lines mark 1987 and 2011. The largest-component share swings year to year and ends lower than it began: the state added institutions faster than it added people who bridge them. Counts after 2020 are inflated by tenures with no recorded end.

