

Three generations, as the author divides them

Life spans of the 37 subjects whose birth and death the volume both gives. The three cohorts are Zmerli's own division of his subjects and are recorded as his judgement, not as an attribute of the people. General Husayn is absent: the book prints his birth year as an ellipsis. Aziza Othmana sits a century clear of everyone else.

Source: Sadok Zmerli, *A'lam Tunisiyun* (Dar al-Gharb al-Islami, 2000), 38 biographical essays, author's extraction. 866 of 873 ties come from a model pass over the Arabic text; every one quotes its page verbatim, but no gold-standard precision or recall figure exists yet, so counts here are lower bounds of unknown tightness.
