

The senior co-service network in 2011

Largest connected component: two people are tied when their tenures in the same institution overlap. Dense clusters are institutions; the ten people named are those with the highest betweenness — the brokers holding the component together.

